what we need and why

The Music School's home is an aging building. Built in 1908 by Cameron Smith, the building has reached a critical time in its life and needs restoration and repair - some urgent.

we need to save our building

Our building is cracking and moving requiring us to undergo some serious repairs to ensure the safety for our students. The critical items are:

- Foundation
- Porches
- Exterior Walls

project costs

Develop specifications and contracts	$5,000
Foundation repair	$290,000
Exterior repairs & paint	$10,000
