CABARET NIGHT AT VCMS (Report by Norma Lemiski)

On Sunday May 28th the loft at VCMS was the setting for a most enjoyable Cabaret night, where the audience was treated to a blend of talents. Some of the students of Neil Fraser, John Johnson, Bev Martens, Morna Howie and Charity van Gameren performed for an enthusiastic and fun loving group. The evening was led by a string quartet featuring Bryn Flock (guitar), Brian Garvin (guitar), Jared Wong (bass) and Mary Howie (violin). The cool performance of this very talented group soon had toes tapping as they engaged the audience of 60 in the cabaret style loft. Each had outstanding solo performances as well as providing accompaniment to the other performers. Mike Typusiak and Luke Odney joined in on tenor sax, Johann Linghor and Heather McInnis with their guitars and Alex Rose thrilled the crowd with his spectacular violin performances. The musicianship on a wide variety of technically difficult pieces by artists such as Herbie Hancock, Django Reinhart, Duke Ellington, Chuck Rio, among others, was first class. The vocals provided by Mica Lemiski, Loren Romei, Stephanie Stewart and Sammy Harper were clean, bright and powerful and a treat to behold. Not only did the musicians and vocalists perform well, they looked sharp too. Congratulations to all who performed. Our music school can be very proud of its students, teachers and parents. ENCORE!!!

Congratulations

We want to congratulate all of our students who participated in the various music festivals this year. It takes courage and determination to perform in such events and everyone of them deserves our respect and pride. The list of the award recipients is displayed at the Music School.
